*We welcome Kenton Sefcik to our pulpit today,
and thank him for being our guest speaker.*

Meet our Guest Speaker, Kenton Sefcik

Kenton Sefcik ("sef-sick") has been practicing acupuncture and East Asian medicine for 18 years. He has taught for Chinese medicine colleges and associations, and lectured at Naturopathic Doctor conferences. He is pursuing a Masters in Divinity from Acadia Divinity College in the track of Pastoral Care and Counselling. He has a sincere interest in the intersection of faith and health, and the value of holding Christ in every moment of every day. He lives with his wife and two children in West Hants.

*Guest Speakers coming up:
Pastor Peter will be on vacation
for the next two weeks.*
