~ November 2nd, 2025 ~

*We gather now where they once stood,
in this quiet, consecrated wood.
The pews hold memories soft and deep,
of promises our loved ones keep.*

*The hymns rise up but with grace,
A quiet echo fills their space.
We hear their voices in the refrain,
Sweet comfort easing present pain.*

*They live among us, a light so true,
In all the caring things they'd do.
A steady hand, a knowing nod,
Their love reflecting love of God.*

*We miss their laughter, warm and bright,
The wisdom that is all light.
But faith assures us, this is not the end,
A different journey, and a new life to tend.*

*So we will hold them close in heart,
Remembering the gracious part
they played in this great holy space,
Until we meet in God's embrace.*
