The Christmas Message

~ by the late Trudi Fenerty

Tonight the snow is falling, frost is on the window pane, It's December, almost Christmas time again.

The stores are stocked with treasures, bright lights are everywhere,

All the trees are decorated, but is the Christ Child there?

*And I think of how it all began,
long centuries ago,
When the Blessed Saviour came from Heaven, to this world below.
There was no fanfare to announce the good news of His birth, And a manger was His first home on this earth.*

THANK YOU

to everyone who came out last Sunday to the Ivy Meadow Christmas Party and Carol Sing.
It was a great time!

*Mary and Joseph had been told
"there's no room at the Inn."
"Just a stable for your shelter where the new life will begin,"
But an angel told the shepherds and the wisemen travelled far,
To find the tiny newborn King led by the eastern star.*

And the earth was filled with singing as there never was before, Singing by the holy angels, standing there at Heaven's door, Singing praises to their God for the miracle He'd done, When he sent to save a lost mankind, His one and only son.

~ Trudi Fenerty was a member of our church family, many years ago.
