MEMORIES

How Great Thou Art was the song he sang,
On his way to Gloryland.

It's been thirty years since that sad day,
I'll never forget it was the month of May.

Many nights still before I sleep
Only happy memories of my childhood I keep,
A christian home, a christian father and mother
What else in life could really matter?

My Dad was a poor fisherman some might say
On the streets of gold he walks today.
Only because he walked with the King,
From his heart and soul he always did sing.

He taught me about God's Amazing Grace
And how some day I could see his face.
God's great promise to us ALL TODAY:
That someday we can all travel the King's highway.

Lovingly remember by daughter, Gina
